BRING PLI TO YOUR LAW SCHOOL

PLI™

PLI is dedicated to supporting the law school community. Our extensive library of programming content is available to law school students, faculty, librarians, career services professionals, and administration on a complimentary basis to support law student professional development.

Many law schools already have access to our award-winning legal research database, PLI PLUS, which contains everything PLI publishes, including legal treatises, program transcripts, and legal practice guides. Law schools that have not yet explored PLI PLUS can receive a deep discount on their subscription.

PROGRAM ACCESS:*

- Individual students, professors, and librarians can access individual PLI programs through a simple scholarship form

- Law school professors can request access for their entire class to attend a specific PLI program or portion of a program through our law school class scholarship form

- Law school clinics can be granted access to a PLI membership whereby any student within that clinic can access PLI programming content

- Career services professionals can take advantage of a 60-day trial membership for an opportunity to review our programming content in detail
